Second Sunday of Ordinary Time

January 20, 2019

WEDDING GIFTS

The Lord likes weddings. Scripture presents the Lord as a bridegroom delighting in his bride: us. At Cana, Jesus, his mother and his disciples were guests at a wedding. When the couple needed help, Jesus creatively showed his glory. The last wine turned out to be the best. God's Spirit shares gifts with us for very good reasons. We receive the gifts with joy and use them for salvation. Being a guest at this great wedding can change everything.

Prayer for Vocations

God, in Baptism you called me by name and made me a member of your people, the Church. Help all your people to know their vocation in life, and to respond by living a life of holiness. For your greater glory and for the service of your people, raise up dedicated and generous leaders who will serve as sisters, priests, brothers, deacons, and lay ministers. Send your Spirit to guide and strengthen me that I may serve your people following the example of your Son, Jesus Christ, in whose name I offer this prayer.

Amen

◆ Children's Liturgy of the Word: In the synagogue at Nazareth, Jesus reads aloud from the scroll of the prophet Isaiah and announces that this Scripture is now fulfilled. Pray together as you read and discuss the following Bible passages:

"The Rise of the Nones: Seeking the sacred in the Digital Age" It's hard to imagine life without the internet. And yet, it's easier to imagine life without faith. When asked their religious affiliation, over a third of American Millennials respond "none of the above".

Join Fr. Tim Clancy, SJ, associate professor of Philosophy at Gonzaga University, as he helps us understand digital evangelization and the spiritual needs of the "nones", who no longer look to a church to satisfy their spiritual longings.
