Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time

February 10, 2019

HEARING THE CALL

Isaiah's prophetic call is mysterious: God's smoky and glorious presence in the sanctuary, with the seraphim crying out as we do in the Eucharistic prayer, "Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory." Peter, James and John were called from much more mundane circumstances: hauling in fish. We are all called from where we are: "Follow the Lord, and proclaim his risen presence." Like Paul, we are called to receive this summons and live our lives in response to it.

Friday, Feb 15th : 7 pm Holy Grounds at St. John's Cathedral

"What is God's will for me?" is a question we often lose sleep over. If God wants what's best for us, why doesn't He just tell us the plan so we can all get a move on? Some people experience this sort of direct revelation. But most of us don't. And that's okay. How we carry on with carrying is just as crucial to discern when we don't get a map to guide us. Alec Williams odd journey is a story of picking one's own path, reorienting when it consistently goes astray, and sometimes trusting God a little along the way. It's an incomplete, imperfect story about wrestling with what we call God's "will" But mostly, it's about spiritual struggle, not spiritual attainment and how that's okay too.

Monday, Feb 15 @7pm Theology on Tap at Smokey Mountain Pizza on Parkcenter in Boise
