Temptation

On the final Sunday of Lent, Palm Sunday, we will hear Jesus, faced with his own death, reaffirm his faith in God, "Your will be done," he says, praying to his Father as he Battles the devil. It is Jesus' faith that allows him to resist temptation, both, now and later. In the readings, Moses expresses the faith of the people in God while Saint Paul preaches that all who have faith will be saved

For a Christian response to bioethical challenges

We pray for Christians facing new bioethical challenges; may they continue to defend the dignity of all human life with prayer and action.

For the last several years, scammers have been posing as Priests or staff in parishes and have sent emails out to parishioners asking for gift cards. We would like to remind you that in no case would anyone in a Diocese or Parish position ask anyone to go out and buy gift cards and then send them the information. IF YOU RECEIVE SUCH AN EMAIL, PLEASE DELETE IT OR IGNORE IT. IF THERE IS ANY QUESTIONS, PLEASE FORWARD THE EMAIL TO THE OFFICE FOR CLARIFICATION.

Prayer Opportunities

Each Lent, Catholic families across the country unite to put their faith into action through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Through CRS Rice Bowl, families learn about how our sisters and brothers across the globe overcome hardships like hunger and malnutrition, and how through Lenten alms, we have the power to make the world a better place for all.

Please take a rice bowl and bring it back before Easter!
Thank you and many Blessings

Just a Reminder!

Sacred Heart and Our Lady of the Rosary supply the non-perishable food items for our Food Pantry located on Overland Road here in Boise.

The perishable items are provided by The Idaho Food Bank, Albertsons and other agency's.

There is a list located in the food basket in the gather space of the recurring needs. At this time we have overage of cereal —NO— cereal at this time.

Thank you for your non-perishable items.

Idaho Catholic Appeal

The 2022 Idaho Catholic Appeal will take place next weekend. The Appeal provides support for over 20 ministries of our diocese including the Clergy Special Needs, Seminarian Vocations Program, Deacon and Lay Ministries Formation Program, Catholic Charities of Idaho, and Catechesis Office. These ministries help all the parishes and missions throughout the State of Idaho that makeup our diocese.

All registered parishioners will be receiving a letter from the Bishop with a brochure and pledge form inviting participation in support of this year's Idaho Catholic Appeal. Please complete the pledge form and bring it to Mass to place in the offertory basket or you may mail it directly to the diocese. Your generosity will allow our Catholic community to continue the many vital programs and services that touch the lives of our brothers and sisters in Christ who need your assistance.

Our parish goal is 100% participation. Please take time to prayerfully discern your gift to the Idaho Catholic Appeal which will take place in the coming weeks. No donation is too small! Did you know once we reach our goal the excess returns to the parish.

PRAYER TO BEGIN THE LENTEN SEASON

This prayer will help your community begin their Lenten journey with CRS Rice Bowl. You can incorporate it into Mass after the homily, or during prayer services or other gatherings. Make sure you have enough CRS Rice Bowls to pass out after the prayer—and recruit volunteers to hand one to each family.

Introduction and Opening Prayer

Lent is a time for reflection and preparation during which we seek to turn away from sin and toward God. The Lenten pillars of prayer, fasting and almsgiving help us do this. In prayer, we grow closer to God and reach out to our family, friends and neighbors near and far. When we fast, we make more room for God in our lives and unite with Christ's suffering. And in giving, we share with others so that all might have what they need to live.

As we journey through these next 40 days with CRS Rice Bowl, we pray that we may encounter God through our global family. We ask the Holy Spirit to accompany us as we reflect on what it means to be sisters and brothers with those in our community and around the world. May our prayers and Lenten sacrifices help us draw closer to our Lord and neighbors and support those experiencing poverty. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Amen

Reading

A reading from the Gospel of Matthew 6:1-6 and 6:16-18.

Weekly Prayer Intentions

Pray for those in need around the world and our own community. See the Weekly Prayer Intentions on crsricebowl.org/parishes.

Prayer to Begin CRS Rice Bowl

Lord Jesus, you call us to a conversion of heart during Lent, and you give us the tools to do this through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. When we pray, help us remember the needs of our sisters and brothers. When we fast, help us offer our sacrifice in union with you. When we give, help us recognize our gifts are from you so that we are generous with others.

May our Lenten journey with CRS Rice Bowl enable us to follow you more faithfully and love our neighbor more fully. Guide us throughout these 40 days so that we may be joined more closely to you when we arrive at the joyful celebration of Easter.

Amen

One Minute Meditations

The Commandment imbalance

Of the Ten Commandments – God’s most important laws – only the first three address how we are to respect the Creator of the universe. The other seven detail how we are to treat each other. It is one more way God lets us know how very much He wants us to love one another.

Just adore

Do you ever run out of things to say during your prayer time? Or worse, do you ever get weary of saying the same things over and over? Why not just sit in silent adoration of the one who loves you more than you can imagine? What words can be better or more appropriate than that?

“Then you shall delight in the LORD, and I will make you ride on the heights of the earth; I will nourish you with the heritage of Jacob, your father, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken”
(Isaiah 58:14).

3 ways to become holier during Lent

Jesus said, a disciple “when he is fully taught will be like his teacher” (Luke 6:40). Lent is our chance to shed the worldly baggage that keeps us from becoming more like Christ. Consider these ideas for routing out sin and embracing virtue:

Remove the wooden beam. We delight in pointing out the sins and shortcomings of others. This is the sin of detraction, disclosing someone’s faults and failings to others without an objectively valid reason. We can use the season of Lent to search for our own faults and remove them instead.

Look like Christ. Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI said that we all crave being looked upon with love. Christ looks upon us with pure love, as described in His parables of the Prodigal Son and the Good Samaritan. During Lent, let’s imitate the heart of Christ and look on others with empathy and compassion.

Find the sacred in the ordinary. St.

Josemaria Escrava taught that there is a call to holiness that can be lived by sanctifying our everyday life. He said, “Carry out the little duties of each moment: do what you ought and concentrate on what you are doing ... There is no other way, my daughters and sons: either we learn to find our Lord in ordinary, everyday life, or we shall never find Him.”

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics make the Sign of the Cross?

Back in the second century when this practice began, it was common to honor a ruler with a gesture of respect. Whether bowing down on one knee or touching the forehead, such gestures were ritual ways to honor a person of great power. The Sign of the Cross became one such devotion to the Holy Trinity.

Now a prayer in itself, each time we make the Sign of the Cross we express respect for God and request His blessings for ourselves.

“Giving up” or “giving for?”

Lent implies deprivation and uncomfortable penances, but it can be more meaningful. Consider turning your offerings into gifts of gratitude for God’s gifts:

Give time in prayer: God, who created the universe, wants to spend time with you. Whether it’s reading Scripture, praying the Rosary, or attending daily Mass, know that God is delighted you’re spending time with Him, and will give you all the graces you need to stay close to Him.

Give small gifts with great love: St. Therese of Lisieux was expert at turning small sacrifices into powerful deeds by her love. Our Lenten sacrifices, entrusted to God, do immense good that we’ll see fully in Heaven. Whoever knew that our simple Lenten offerings can be part of God’s saving work?

Give half your cloak: According to legend, St. Martin of Tours gave half of his cloak to a cold beggar. That night, Jesus appeared to St. Martin in a dream, wearing the cloak. When we serve others, it is Jesus who ultimately receives our gift.

from Scripture

Luke 15:1-3, 11-32, The Father’s heart

In this Gospel reading, Jesus told the story of the Prodigal (or reckless) Son. It goes like this. One day, the younger son demanded his father to give him his share of the estate. He left to squander it far from home.

When his money was gone, his situation grew desperate and he returned to his father, humbled and asking for mercy. The father was overjoyed to have his son back and threw a huge party. The older son, however, resented his brother’s welcome and complained to his father that he didn’t get a reward to celebrate his obedience—and he was the “good one!”

Jesus promised that when we approach God with a truly repentant heart, we can always come home. It’s not that God wants us to feel bad, but, like any parent, he wants us to understand we did something wrong and be willing to change. Through this parable, Jesus shows us that God is a loving, generous Father whose deepest nature is merciful, forgiving love. We are reminded that we can always come home.

Q & A How can I get over my fear of Confession?

For many Catholics, going to Confession is unsettling. Facing and admitting our faults to another person – even in a confidential setting – is uncomfortable, even painful. In this case, the priest is acting in the person of God and it takes courage and humility to present ourselves before God. In Confession we say to God, “Please forgive me for intentionally rejecting You and Your love.”

If you feel uncomfortable while waiting in the Confession line, it’s a good sign. It means your conscience is healthy and working. Remember that God sees us standing in line and He is ready to welcome us back. He isn’t angry or brooding, or smug because our poor choices proved He was right. In fact, when we are sincerely repentant, He and all of heaven celebrate because we’re returning to Him (Luke 15:10). When the priest says the words of absolution, imagine God embracing you, saying, “My child, your sins are forgiven you... Go and sin no more.” We receive powerful graces, and are asked to make amends where possible. Rejoice in the chance to start again.

Feasts & Celebrations

March 2 – Ash Wednesday. First day of Lent. Ashes from burnt palms are placed on the forehead as a sign of penance. Ash Wednesday is a day of abstinence from meat and fasting – one regular meal and two smaller meals that together don’t equal a full meal.

March 5 – St. John Joseph of the Cross (1734). St. John joined a group of Franciscans called the Reform of St. Peter of Alcantara. Despite his elevated position and spiritual gifts, he remained humble, doing menial tasks around the monastery.

March 8 – St. John of God (1550). Originally, St. John was a soldier known for his violence and immorality. After nearly dying in battle, he converted and dedicated his life to serving the poor and sick.

March 17 – St. Patrick of Ireland (c.461). Born in Scotland, St. Patrick was kidnapped and brought to Ireland as a slave. He escaped but later returned to become the bishop of Ireland and is credited for having established the Church there.

Jesus was tempted from a high place. But He did not do wrong. Jesus was obedient.
