Second Sunday of Lent

March 17, 2019

Covenant God

God and Abraham made a lasting covenant with bodies broken and eaten by God in bright fire. For us today, all of the law and the prophets come to fulfillment in Moses and Elijah. They point to Jesus, who shines as the key to our share in the covenant. By his broken body in the Eucharist we, too, will be transfigured. The divine fire nourishes and changes us into citizens of our homeland in heaven. We eat the Eucharistic Christ Jesus, who is our passport to heaven. Do we dare take part?

Please accept our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to all who have made their generous commitment to this year's Idaho Catholic Appeal. Catholics throughout our diocese are uniting in faith, sharing their blessings, and giving gifts in Jesus' name.

The Idaho Catholic Appeal provides support for our seminarians and priests. We see the fruits of the Appeal in our parish through trained catechists, deacons, and lay ministers and resources for our parish staff and ministers provided by the diocese. The Catechesis Office, which forms and supports parish catechetical leaders serving thousands of children and adolescents each year in parish religious education programs, is supported through the Idaho Catholic Appeal. Remember that no gift is too small. For those who have not yet responded, we urge you to consider offering your commitment at this time here at the church by filling out a pledge envelope located in the pew and dropping it in the collection basket. Please remember that you can fulfill your pledge over several months and pay by credit card, automatic debit, cash, money orders, or checks. The Diocese also accepts gifts online at www.catholicidaho.org. With every parishioner's meaningful participation, we will succeed in reaching our goal.

Thank you for your support of the Diocese of Boise and Our Lady of the Rosary.

SUPPORTING PERMANENT DIACONATE

Last fall 2018, Bishop Peter Christensen ordained nine men to the Permanent Diaconate. Permanent deacons help the local pastor by visiting the sick, teaching the faith, counseling couples and individuals, working on parish committees and councils, and giving advice to the pastor. Deacons can baptize, witness marriages, perform funeral and burial services outside of Mass, distribute Holy Communion, and preach the homily.

"What was God thinking? Surely, he'd made a mistake!" Deacon Cuppage said. "But we shared this calling; a calling from God to serve His people; a call to the diaconate," he said.

"By God's grace, we persevered. We grew together. We've supported each other, embraced each other and have become true brothers in Christ."
