Easter Sunday
April 21, 2019

ALLELUIA !

Today we hear the joyous news from Saints Peter, Paul, and John, each of them attesting to the Easter event. Saint Peter, speaking to a group of non-Christians, testifies to Christ's life, death, and resurrection. Saint Paul writes to the Colossians and the Corinthians about what they should do in the light of Jesus' resurrection. Saint John, in writing the Gospel, tells of the first disciples finding the empty tomb on Sunday morning. As we listen, may we sense the joy and wonder of these first witnesses.

The Sunday after Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday!

How should we prepare for this great Feast of Mercy?

Jesus told St. Faustina that this Feast of Mercy would be a very special day when “all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened.” (Diary 699)*

Jesus promised that “The soul that will go to Confession (preferably before that Sunday) and receive Holy Communion (on Divine Mercy Sunday) shall obtain the complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.”(Diary 699)*

The Image of The Divine Mercy, with the words, “Jesus I Trust in You”, is on display in the narthex of Our Lady of the Rosary Church. Our Lord said “I want the image to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish”. (Diary 341, 48)*

Jesus spoke to Saint Faustina (and by extension, all of us), “But child, you are not yet in your homeland; so go, fortified by My grace, and fight for My kingdom in human souls; fight as a king’s child would; and remember that the days of your exile will pass quickly, and with them the possibility of earning merit for heaven. I expect from you, My child, a great number of souls who will glorify My mercy for all eternity.” (Diary 1489)* Saint Faustina responds: “Every soul You have entrusted to me, Jesus, I will try to aid with prayer and sacrifice, so that Your grace can work in them. O great lover of souls, my Jesus, I thank You for this immense confidence with which You have deigned to place souls in our care.” (Diary 245)*

May we all pray: Grant, Merciful Lord, that not even one of those souls which You have entrusted to us be lost. Amen.

Encourage all of your family and friends to take advantage of these incredible promises and the additional Plenary Indulgence bestowed by Pope St. John Paul II for this Feast of Mercy.

We will be celebrating this great Feast Day with Benediction, Adoration of the Holy Eucharist, singing the Divine Mercy Chaplet and Veneration of the Image of Divine Mercy.

(Fr. Radmar Jao, SJ)

It's so easy to get caught up in the busyness of life, especially in our culture that values doing over being. Problem is, perpetual motion often distracts from the deeper issues that God may be calling us to explore. Join Fr. Radmar as he helps us to navigate our busy "to do" lists and find God in the center of it all; or better yet, to allow God to find US!
