COVENANT Bread, wine, and fish are God's food for the end times – and are used many times in the Bible. Melchizedek, the priest-king of God's City, Jerusalem, offers bread and wine to Abraham, the spiritual father of us all. Jesus gives the superabundant Messianic food – bread and fish – to the 5,000 people. We receive a share of the new covenant in Jesus body and blood, which is in the form of bread and wine. Come to this heavenly banquet to receive God's life!

Moments of Mercy

Saints of Mercy ~ Feed the Hungry: St. Louis IX (1214-1270) St. Louis' devout mother taught him to love God. As a king, he ruled France with mercy and showed his subjects how to be just. He had a special love for the poor and provided food for them. It was said that over a hundred poor people ate in his palace daily and the king often served them himself.

Give Drink to the Thirsty: St. Peter Claver (1581-1654) St. Peter Claver was sent for mission work in South America. He brought basic necessities, including drinks, to the slaves and nursed them back to health. He spoke to them about God and satisfied the thirst in their hearts. He baptized over 300,000 people in his lifetime. Find more information about these and other Saints of Mercy at www.olrboise.org
