Mass Education & Etiquette

What does the word "Alleluia" mean? In the Greek form of the Hebrew word "Hallelu Yah," which means "Praise the Lord!" or more literally "Praise Yahweh!" "Yahweh was the sacred name of God never pronounced by anyone except the High Priest, and then only once a year. So whenever the name of God appeared in the Scriptures, the reader would say "Adonai" instead. "Adonai" is a Hebrew word that means "Lord."

Ministry Spotlight

Have you seen Mary's Garden?

This Ministry is comprised of a small number of people who help with spring and fall clean-up of Mary's Garden (on the patio). Each person has about 3 different weeks between May and Sept. to do the maintenance required in the garden. It takes about 1-2 hours per time. There may be add-ons related to landscaping. If you get a chance take a look at the detail & planning to make this such a beautiful space for our parish community! Thank you to Mary's Garden team!

Even if you can only give a little, we know God will increase it and return it back to us ten fold! Consider making a donation online at: www.catholicidaho.org. Or drop it off at the office.
