After all the feasts and festivities of the paschal season and its post paschal solemnities, you will find today's celebration straightforward. Everyone who has lost a child, whether in youth or as an adult, should leave comforted by today's celebration. The pain may diminish but it doesn't go away. Pope Francis calls us to a universal compassion that, like Jesus, leads us to action. That action could be anything from compassion for those who grieve to helping put a stop to human trafficking.
