13th Sunday in Ordinary time, Year C
June 26, 2016

CALLED AND CHOSEN Being "called" offers the possibility to be "chosen." Choice is a two-sided freedom. Today we hear about Elisha's call: he prepares his work and family and then takes up the work of Elijah. We hear Jesus' stronger call. Jesus demands a free, single-minded response. There is no turning back for those who follow him. It is a daunting call to salvation, to holiness, to sharing his life. He gives us courage to follow him in the Eucharist. Do we, do you dare to answer that call, wherever it leads?

Moments of Mercy

Saints of Mercy ~ Clothe the Naked: St. Martin of Tours (316-397) St. Martin was the Bishop of Tours, France. As a young soldier, he met a poor shivering beggar who had little to wear. He cut off half of his cloak to cover the beggar. That night, he dreamt of Jesus wearing the same half portion of his cloak. St. Martin realized that what he did for the beggar, he was in fact doing for Jesus.

Shelter the Homeless: St. John Vianney (1786-1859) St. John Vianney was a holy parish priest in Ars, France. He started an orphanage, La Providence, to shelter homeless girls. They learned skills such as housekeeping and received advice for their spiritual life. St. John Vianney loved to visit them and he taught them about God. Find more information about these and other Saints of Mercy at www.olorboise.org
