This week at Our Lady of the Rosary

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 5, 2020

MY YOKE IS EASY

Jesus wants us to take up his burden as he takes up ours. "My yoke is easy and my burden light," he says. His burden, the cross is a way of life. Our own burdens are better shared with the one who leads us to salvation. The Father has entrusted all to Jesus, his son, who leads us home. God invites us to his table, the Eucharist.

Children's Liturgy of the Word: Jesus teaches that the kingdom of heaven is like seed that has been sown on good soil. Families mainly hold the responsibility for "preparing the soil" so that the seeds of God's Word can grow strong. There are many ways in which families do this—family traditions in which faith is celebrated, prayer and reading of Scripture, and instruction on the faith. In these ways, parents fulfill the promises they made at their child's Baptism. Pray as you read and discuss the following Bible passages:

Reading I: Isaiah 55:10-11

Psalm: Psalm 65: 10, 11, 12-13, 14

Reading II: Romans 8:18-23

Gospel: Matthew 13:1-23

Learn more about this Gospel with reflections and activities from Loyola Press

◆ Adult: How do you provide "good soil" for your faith and the faith of others to grow?

◆ Children: What are you doing to help the seeds of your faith grow each day?

St. Vincent de Paul will be displaying a beautiful Subaru Forester from our friends at Treasure Valley Subaru. You can win this brand new Jasper Green Forester, valued at over $25,000, for only $100! There are only 600 tickets for sale, so get yours today before they sell out.

St. Vincent de Paul will have a table by the car on display after all the Masses with information on how to enter for the drawing.

Check out Our Lady of the Rosary's web page for a direct link to purchase your tickets and to see what else is happening with Summerfest 2020.

Youth Ministry

Confirmation - Thank you to all those that assisted with the confirmation liturgy and reception. Pictures of the confirmation will be available any time after July 13th, you can go to: KingdomPhoPro.com/OLR the password will be "confirmation" with no capital letters or symbols. Pictures will be available until August 13th.

Please call Photographer at 208-283-9749 with any questions.

Social Distance Hang-out: Come hang out on the patio at 4PM each Sunday before the 5:30PM Mass. We will have different things each week and/or just an opportunity to have a small gathering safely.

Weekly iGnite checkins will begin this next week. Stay connected.... we will have some morning and evening sessions. If you are not on flocknote sign up by texting IGNITEYM to 84576 that way you will get the most up-to-date information about iGnite Youth Ministry.

Service Opportunity for all those in the parish: Plans are underway to do a backyard makeover for a single mom in need July 13-17th. We will be able to have plenty of room to social distance and do something important out in the fresh air. This is open to all ages. I will have a sign up outside the youth room doors, however, if you want to participate or want more information please contact Cindy at canderson@olrboise.org Many hands make light work and a huge difference!

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

The RCIA is the method by which adults receive the Catholic sacraments of initiation; Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist. Those who have been validly baptized in another Christian denomination are not baptized again but are received into full communion with the Catholic Church through a profession of faith following catechesis. The sacraments of initiation are normally conferred during the Easter Vigil Mass. Our Lady of the Rosary typically begins preparation in early September. We meet on Tuesday evenings from 7:00pm to 8:30pm. If you are interested in learning more, or know someone who might be, please contact Mike Coyle (208-484-8677 or mtcoyle@cablone.net).

Our Lady of the Rosary

One Minute Meditations

St. Benedict of Nursia

Born to a wealthy Italian family, St. Benedict was educated in Rome during the barbarian invasions – a time of division, chaos, and failing morals. Dismayed at the rampant immorality of his peers, he fled Rome and lived as a hermit in the mountains. Attracted by his holiness, many people sought him out. St. Benedict went on to found twelve monasteries in Subiaco and the famous Monte Cassino, which became a center of holiness, learning, and culture.

Keep parish lights on

Whether or not your parish has gone back to public Mass, please make your weekly donation by mail before you leave. Your parish depends upon your help to pay the bills even when you're not home.

"In the silence of the heart God speaks. If you face God in prayer and silence, God will speak to you. Souls of prayer are souls of great silence."

St. Teresa of Calcutta

Share your faith

In this time of uncertainty, followers of Jesus know that worry is unnecessary. We know God wants us to experience his peace and share it with others. Try these tips to help others lean on God:

Go deep into God's love. It is ours today, tomorrow, and forever. "... Good indeed is the Lord, His mercy endures forever, his faithfulness lasts through every generation" (Psalm 100:5). Experiencing Sacraments, reading Scripture, and spending time in prayer are keys to growing in God's love and sharing it.

Share your confidence in God's care. Jesus promised that God will give us all we need, "Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you shall eat or what you shall drink, nor about your body, what you shall put on ... your heavenly Father knows that you need them all" (Matthew 6:25, 32). Stress stems from the absence of certainty and control over our future. When we put ourselves in God's care, we can feel peace.

Demonstrate trust in God. While we may not be completely free from worry, St. Paul wrote, "Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:6-7).

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics need bishops?

In the Catholic Church, a bishop is an ordained minister who holds the fullness of the Sacrament of Holy Orders. Bishops teach doctrine, govern Catholics in their jurisdictions, and represent the Church.

In addition to filling the need for leadership in a family as big as the Church, bishops link us to the Apostles. The Apostles chose disciples to fill their office after them, and passed on to them the authority and faith they had received from Christ. This spiritual treasure was passed from bishop to bishop by consecration in an unbroken line up to today. This way, the faith will be available in every age to the rest of the Church.

Where is the real Catholic Church

The Catholic Church is not just a building or a group of people. Rather, the real Church is a family begun by Jesus, extending all over the world, stretching through time and space.

In Heaven live those members who completed their earthly lives as God intended. They watch over us when we ask.

Members in Purgatory did their best to follow Jesus but died without having made adequate penance for their venial sins. Our prayers help them get to Heaven.

And those of us who are members on Earth are still living within the family, trying to make it to Heaven.

All three groups make up the Church and we are all connected forever. So not only can we ask our friends on Earth to pray for us, we can appeal for prayers to those who are face-to-face with God.

The Church began with Christ but is populated by humans. Still, we are all called to live fully in Christ's image. That means the Church is anywhere we are.

from Scripture

Matthew 13:44-52, The kingdom is worth everything

Jesus used the parables in this Gospel passage to emphasize the life-changing value of the Kingdom.

In the first parable, a man discovers – seemingly by accident – a treasure buried in a field. He sells everything he has to purchase the field. In the second scenario, a merchant finds a valuable pearl after diligent searching. He also sells everything he has to possess the pearl.

By these parables, Jesus taught that being part of God's Kingdom – accepting his love for us and loving others as he loves – is the only thing that really feeds our souls. God's unconditional love is the only thing that is worthy of everything we have. If we accept his invitation (he won't force us), our lives may change as our hearts change.

Finally, Jesus compared the separation between the evil and righteous to the sifting that happens when a large catch is brought ashore.

Similarly, when we put our whole life in service to our love for God, then the individual pieces fall into place around that love.

Whatever is contrary to this love falls away.

Q & A

There's a saint for that!

Down through the ages, Catholics have invoked the saints for their prayers, even for everyday things. It was a way of offering everything to God, through the saints' prayers, even little things like losing your keys! Here are some "holy helpers":

Airplane travelers, astronauts: St. Joseph of Cupertino miraculously levitated while at prayer.

Accountants, bankers: St. Matthew the Apostle was a dishonest tax collector until Christ called him to be an Apostle (Matthew 9:9).

Battle, soldiers, doctors, police: St. Michael the Archangel led the angels to victory against the Devil and his forces (Revelation 12:7-9).

Finding lost things: St. Anthony of Padua prayed and recovered his stolen prayer book.

Plagues, pestilence, sick people: St. Roch cared for victims of the plague in Italy.

Students, teachers, schools: St. Thomas Aquinas, once teased as "the Dumb Ox," was actually one of the most brilliant scholars in the Church.

Feasts & Celebrations

July 3 – St. Thomas (1st Century). Known as "doubting Thomas" for requesting proof of the Resurrection, he made a beautiful profession of faith when he received proof, "My Lord and My God" (John 20:28). Tradition says that Thomas traveled to India and was martyred near Mylapore.

July 14 – St. Kateri Tekakwitha (1680). A smallpox epidemic in her Native American village left Kateri orphaned, disfigured, and half-blind. Introduced to Catholicism by missionaries, she was baptized at the age of 19 and moved to a Christian village where she lived in holiness.

July 22 – St. Mary Magdalene (1st century). Mary Magdalene, from whom Jesus expelled seven demons, helped to financially support Jesus' ministry (Luke 8:2) and stood by the cross of Jesus with his mother (John 19:25). She first informed the Apostles of Jesus' Resurrection.

July 24 – St. Charbel Makhlouf (d. 1898). A Maronite hermit, St. Charbel lived a life of solitude and holiness. He had a reputation as a wonder worker, even among his Muslim neighbors.

Jesus Thanks His Father

Jesus spoke to a crowd about

John the Baptist. Jesus said that this generation was like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling something out to others. What was it?

What else did Jesus say?

Solve the math problems below.

Then use the code to fill in the words of Jesus.

$2 + 6 = \blacksquare = 9 - 6 = \bullet = 6 - 2 = \blacklozenge$
 $11 - 5 = \blacktriangle = 13 - 6 = \blacklozenge = 8 + 1 = \blacksquare$
 $2 + 3 = \blacklozenge = 8 - 6 = \blacklozenge$

- $\blacksquare$  committed
- $\blacktriangle$  chooses
- $\blacklozenge$  knows
- $\blacklozenge$  Father
- $\blacklozenge$  one
- $\blacklozenge$  Son
- $\blacklozenge$  the
- $\bullet$  no
