LOVE OF NEIGHBOR The Lord Jesus presents wholehearted love of God and neighbor as the key to eternal life. It is not a law beyond us but is “in our mouth and in our heart for our observance. “In the almost too familiar story of the Good Samaritan, the priest and the Levite pass by and the foreigner does the healing work. “Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us” is partially explained here. Our neighbors tie us to the cross of the Christ by which we are saved and raise up. It is an exacting joy!

Moments of Mercy

Mercy is "the beating heart of the Gospel"

Pope Francis writes: "It is absolutely essential for the Church and for the credibility of her message that she herself live and testify to mercy." Mercy, he says, is "the beating heart of the Gospel" (Misericordiae Vultus). To live mercy, we must rediscover both the spiritual works of mercy (counsel the doubtful, instruct the ignorant, admonish sinners, comfort the afflicted, forgive offences, bear patiently those who do us ill, and pray for the living and the dead), and the corporal works of mercy (feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, welcome the stranger, heal the sick, visit the imprisoned, and bury the dead).

Which spiritual works of mercy might Christ be calling you to practice?

Which corporal works of mercy?

To find more ideas for practicing the works of mercy look online for the Mercy Passport from the Archdiocese of Louisville, KY or
