ENTER Will there only be a few saved?" This is a hard question with a hard answer. "Enter by the narrow door for many will try and will not succeed." The Lord came to save the "nations of every language," each and every one of us, but even the Lord relies on our free response to the offer. So "hold up your limp arms and steady your trembling knees and smooth out the path you will tread" when following the lead of our Savior. There is hope – "those now last will be first." Can you step out onto the way of the Lord?"

Reading II: Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a

Adult: Who are the people living near you that you would find it most difficult to invite to a meal in your home? Or to invite to be part of your life?

Moments of Mercy

Mary the Mother of Mercy

May the sweetness of her countenance watch over us in this Holy Year, so that all of us may rediscover the joy of God's tenderness. No one has penetrated the profound mystery of the incarnation like Mary. Her entire life was patterned after the presence of mercy made flesh. The Mother of the Crucified and Risen One has entered the sanctuary of divine mercy because she participated intimately in the mystery of His love... At the foot of the Cross, Mary, together with John, the disciple of love, witnessed the words of forgiveness spoken by Jesus. This supreme expression of mercy towards those who crucified him show us the point to which the mercy of God can reach. Mary attests that the mercy of the Son of God knows no bounds and extends to everyone, without exception. Let us address her in the words of the Salve Regina, a prayer ever ancient and ever new, so that she may never tire of turning her merciful eyes upon us, and make us worthy to contemplate the face of mercy, her Son Jesus. Misericordiae Vultus 24

Lost and Found: Are you missing glasses, children's books, prayer books? Clothing? Please check out the lost and found.
