COME HOME The Golden Calf is a strong image, from the Bible to the Faustian legends, of rejecting God. But God is faithful and patient in allowing the prodigal to come back home. When we do, Jesus says all creation rejoices because the lost is found. We have sacramental healing of the sinner and the sick, through penance and anointing of the sick, to lead us back to the "great feast of Heaven." You are invited to share in the wedding banquet of God. Are you coming back to where you should be?

Moments of Mercy

New situations can be intimidating, yet they are also a great opportunity to grow and express yourself. We want to make a good impression on others, whether it is at the beginning of a new school year, a new job, or just meeting someone for the first time. Likewise, when people are first turning to the Christian faith, we want them to have a positive experience of Christianity so that they can come to know the love and mercy of God. In all of our actions then, we ought to take this into consideration and model our own attitudes and actions after Christ, who is the "face of the Father's mercy"(MV,no.1) By showing others love, mercy, and compassion, we offer them the opportunity to deepen their relations with God. From usccb.org. Personal encounters and invitations are a great way to witness God's mercy and compassion to others. Even little actions, like a smile, can make a big difference in the way people see you as living out your faith.

- Eat lunch with someone you don't normally sit with.
- Invite someone to come to church with you.
