Twenty-Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time

September 16, 2018

LIVING FAITH

“Who do people say I am?” Everyone asks that question. Often we are pushed by people into places we do not want to be—the wrong places. Today Peter gets rebuked because his thinking is “not God’s way.” In our lives, faith in God needs actions to express it, strengthen it and make it grow. Otherwise faith is dead and only an abstraction—interesting, maybe, as a monument to something past. Certainly not for today’s world. If you can say today “I am a faith-filled Christian,” do you think others can detect your faith through your actions?

Sacred Heart Church Professional/career development: As Catholic, the Church calls us to strive for excellence in every aspect in our lives, including our careers. Working to develop yourself as a professional is an aspect of Christian discipleship. What is the Church saying to the lay Catholic about their work "in the world" today? What gifts has God given to you to help you be more effective at your work. On September 28 & 29, Sacred Heart Church (Boise) will offer a two-day program, the Called & Gifted Workshop that teaches about the role of lay Catholics in the Church's mission to the world and about the gifts that each of us has been given in order to fulfill that mission. Cost is $75. Online registration forms are available at <http://sacredheartboise.org>. Call Debbie at Sacred Heart (208-344-8311) for information
