Thirty-first Sunday of Ordinary Time

November 4, 2018

GOD AND NEIGHBOR

The two great commandments form a supportive cross for our lives: love God wholeheartedly and love your neighbor as yourself. One without the other does not hold us up in the Lord's presence. Our weakness needs the cross of our redeemer Jesus to lean on. He shows us how to cling to his tree of life and how to climb slowly toward our salvation "following his separate call to each of us." If we truly seek the kingdom of God, this is the way to go. Can you lean on Christ's glorious cross? He intercedes for our weakness and sins!
