ENDURING WITNESS "Martyr" and "confessor" are two words for "enduring witness." The lists of our holy ancestors in the faith are full of those people giving witness to the resurrection of our Lord Jesus and its consequences for life. Our faith is based on those witnesses tracing a line all the way to the first Easter Sunday. We sign ourselves, we recite the Creed, and we pray the Our Father as they, and we, were taught at baptism. Our solidarity with them in faith and the Eucharist gives us strength to endure for our lives, too.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Thank you to all who made our All Saints Day Trunk or Treat such a success! Special thanks to the Atkinson, Dickson, Goodson, Hamerl, Idol, Schauble, Snyder, and Taylor Families for decorating their trunks. Thank you to all who donated candy and the wonderful children who dressed up as Saints. You were amazing!

Thank you all for the prayers and support given to our First Sacrament children as they prepared for and celebrated their First Reconciliation. Our Prayer Partner Potluck and Communal Penance Service were wonderful celebrations. Thank you families for being the primary teachers of your Catholic faith with your children.

Children's Liturgy of the Word at Home: Next week is the Solemnity of Christ the King and the last Sunday of the Liturgical Year. Pray together as a family as you read and discuss the Bible passages below.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Reading I: 2 Samuel 5:1-3
Reading II: Colossians 1:12-20
Gospel: Luke 23:35-43

Adult: As you think about Jesus on the cross, having mercy and compassion on the "good thief," what lesson do you draw from it for your own life?

Child: Child: Jesus is always kind to those who love him. How do you show your love for Jesus?

Moments of Mercy

Death is a difficult topic to discuss for many people, but it is something we face on a regular basis. The Church celebrates the life and memory of those who have passed from this world and reminds us of God's merciful love. There are many examples of this: at the beginning of November, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of All Saints and the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls); there are vigils for the deceased, funeral liturgies, rites of committal and final commendation, and prayers for the deceased and those who are mourning. All of these prayers and services help us acknowledge our grief, celebrate the life of the one who has passed away, and find solace in the loving compassion of God.

From usccb.org

1. Throughout this month, we should commend in prayer the bodies and souls of those who have died and who may still be in need of God's mercy in purgatory (CCC, 1020-1060). Sometimes it helps to write out a list or mention specific names of those who have died. Add some of these prayers and scripture readings to your daily prayer time.

2. In addition to praying for them, we can help those who are grieving in a tangible way. Be open to listening to someone who is grieving. You could volunteer with a bereavement ministry at your parish if it has one (this usually involves helping organize funeral liturgies and/or a small reception or luncheon afterward for the family). In these small acts of mercy, we show others that the love of God is still present in their lives and their communities even though they are grieving
