FLOWERING TREE Jesus reigns as king from his cross, granting entrance into paradise. The cross ties together the heavens and the earth and all around it. The cross is the ladder by which we climb to the heavenly wedding banquet; it is the place where time and eternity meet; it is the flowering tree of Paradise. The cross is the bridge over the gulf between this world and the next. The cross is where the flow of the Holy Spirit enters into time and space and where we are sucked up into the sweet presence of the Trinity.

Reading II: Romans 13:11-14

Gospel: Matthew 24:37-44

Adult: As you prepare to re-welcome Christ into your heart while you prepare for Christmas, what does Isaiah call you to do? What does Isaiah call us as a people to do?

Moments of Mercy

~ Saints of Mercy ~

Bury the Dead: St. Teresa of Calcutta(1910-1997)

St. Teresa spent her life serving the poorest of the poor. She started a Home for the Dying for those who had nowhere to go. One day, she saw dying woman lying in the street badly eaten up by the rats. She carried the woman to the Home and helped her. She eventually brought many others to the Home. They were loved and cared for until the last day of their lives and died with dignity.

Praying for the Living and the Dead: St. Pio of Pietrelcina

(1887-1968) St. Pio was a Capuchin Priest from Italy. He was a very holy man with many spiritual gifts. He was able to see people's guardian angels and these angels presented their needs for St. Pio to pray for. There were also many people who visited and wrote to him for his intercessions. St. Pio was also able to see the Holy Souls from Purgatory who sought his prayers. His prayers comforted the living and the dead greatly.

Year of Mercy—Today on the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (Christ the King) ends the Jubilee Year of Mercy and the Holy Doors at St. Peter's in the Vatican and holy doors all over the world will be closing. However, do not let your hearts and minds close on Pope Francis' call to live a life of mercy and strive to show mercy to others.
