MARANATHA

"Maranatha" is an Aramaic expression that was probably used in the early Christian liturgy as an eschatological prayer that implored the Lord to come again in his parousia. The word has been translated as "Our Lord, come" or "Come, Lord Jesus!" Maranatha is a prayer for the early return of Christ. When the Aramaic words are divided (Maran atha, "Our Lord has come"), it becomes a creedal declaration. This interpretation is supported by what appears to be a Greek equivalent of this acclamation as found in the Book of Revelation, "Amen, Come Lord Jesus" (22:20). In short, this prayer expresses a longing for God's presence—not in human terms, but of the indwelling of God in our lives. "Word of Justice, Alleluia. Come to dwell here, Maranatha!"

Thanksgiving Food Boxes

Thank-you for your generous support of the St. Vincent de Paul Thanksgiving Food Box Project both in donations and volunteer hours. We collected food boxes to provide 176 families with Thanksgiving dinner (many of the boxes contained extra food). $1,535.00 was collected. Many people helped with parish and recipient sign-ups, publicizing the project, transportation of turkeys and boxes, truck donation, collection of boxes at Our Lady of the Rosary coordination of potatoes and onions, and fairground help. Feeding one person is one thousand times more valuable than feeding a thousand-because it's personal. You responded to God's calling. Blessings on everyone.
