Mass Education & Etiquette

Why do Catholics call priests "Father"?

In Matthew 23:9 Jesus tells us to "call no man on earth your father." Jesus is teaching us that God the Father alone is the source of all authority. He is not telling us that we can't call priests "Father," otherwise he would be implying that we not address our biological fathers, the Church Fathers, or even founding fathers of a country with the title "father." St. Paul uses the term in 1 Cor 4:15 when he tells us he "became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel." This type of fatherhood applies to those who are wise counselors.

Prayer Opportunities

- ◆ Rosary before Mass - The Rosary will begin 30 minutes prior to Saturday and Sunday Masses in the Chapel.
